Come Join The No Kings National Day of Protest in Burlington June 14th!

Hello Indivisible Members,

Queen City Vermont Indivisible (QCVI) & 50501 are creating an exciting and hopefully very large event as part of the National No Kings Day protest. QCVI Indivisible is organizing a March to the Waterfront from 2 locations.

Assemble at 11:00 AM; converge at the Waterfront at noon.

- North End March: 11:00 Meet at Burlington High School baseball field (52 Institute Rd, Burlington; Park at North Beach by 10:45)
- Southend March: 11:00 Meet at Calahan Park (2 Locust St, Burlington)
- Not up for marching: 12:00 Meet the Burlington Waterfront (10 College St)

Please be on time as the two marches will converge at the waterfront at noon. Bring: Flags from the US or other countries, your signs, your voice, your energy!

Plans are still developing, but there will be a Die-In performance, speakers, music, bop the king clown, and maybe food trucks. This is a family friendly event. To learn more about the Die-In click
